

You are cordially invited to participate in the Health Justice Alliance

Oral Health Convening

Focusing on

Children with Special Health Care Needs

Supported with funding from the George E. Richmond Foundation

In collaboration with Georgetown University Law Center's Harrison Institute for Public Law and Georgetown University's Health Justice Alliance, the O'Neill Institute for National & Global Health Law will host a convening of oral health and public policy experts to identify policies that negatively impact access to services in Washington, D.C. for children with special health care needs.

Thursday, March 29, 2018

8:30am-2:00pm

Georgetown University Law Center
Gewirz Student Center, 12th Floor
120 F Street, Northwest
Washington, District of Columbia

Please RSVP here by February 27th

*Lunch & Refreshments will be served
With remarks from Dean William M. Treanor*

